

The Falmouth Enterprise

Friday, July 26, 2002

West Falmouth Real Estate Agent Opens Her Own Office

Martha Pendergast of Chase Road, a real estate agent in Falmouth for the past eight years, has announced the opening of her new business. Martha Pendergast Real Estate, in West Falmouth, will offer a range of properties, including waterfront or water view homes and homes with access to boating and golf.

Mrs. Pendergast, who has lived in Falmouth for 12 years, holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Trinity College in Washington, D.C. and a master's degree in international business from Sophia University in Tokyo. She is also a graduate of the Realtor Institute, as well as a certified buyer representative and a member of the Cape Cod and Islands Association of Realtors, the Massachusetts and National Associations of Realtors, and the Real Estate Buyer's Agent Council.

Because she will be busy running her own firm, Mrs. Pendergast has recently resigned her position as senior broker of the West Falmouth Office of Kinlin Grover Real Estate.

Mrs. Pendergast lives in West Falmouth with her husband, Scott Pendergast and her two-year-old daughter, Alice. She is a member of the Falmouth Historical Society and the Falmouth Garden Club.